

The Alliance Française of Puerto Rico is currently looking for instructors of French, Italian, German, Spanish, and English.

REQUIREMENTS:

The candidate should have:

- BA or MA in the target language, Linguistics or related field
- A minimum B2 Level in the target language of instruction or, if more appropriate, U.S. equivalent for English and Spanish
- Strong familiarity with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) or U.S. equivalent for English and Spanish
- Good command of digital platforms and tools
- Previous teaching experience is highly appreciated.

RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Prepare and execute complete planning for assigned classes according to the education program of the Alliance Française of Puerto Rico
- Provide language instruction to students in assigned classes, on location at AFPR's facilities in San Juan
- Present lessons and use audio/visual resources in order to ease learning process at the assigned level.
- Develop students' interest in the target language, guide them in their learning and developing process. Establish learning activities in class and participate to events of the AFPR.
- Ensure pedagogical coherence in the use of methods, especially in relation to the class's weekly hours
- Create resourceful documents and shared assessments as needed

Qualified candidates can send their resume and cover letter in Spanish, French, or English to:

admin@afpuertorico.org & cursos.afpr@gmail.com